

I am very pleased with Indiana's Do Not Call provision and would be very unhappy to have any bill such as 02-278 overturn it. Please side with the consumers you represent and not the banks and other advertisers. They can reach us over the internet, through TV and radio, and via the mail. Please do not allow them to again annoy us over the telephone while we are sharing our limited time with our families.